Exemplary service and bravery of OC Sheriff personnel honored at Medal of Valor

SANTA ANA, Ca. (Oct. 1, 2021): The Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council on Thursday, Sept. 30, recognized 54 members of the Sheriff's Department for heroic acts and exemplary service at the 33rd Annual Medal of Valor.

Thirty-one medals for Lifesaving were awarded, along with 14 medals of Merit and nine medals of Courage. K-9 Rosco also received the Canine Medal of Merit for his work apprehending a knife-wielding suspect. Three deputies received multiple medals related to one incident.

In addition, Sheriff-Coroner Don Barnes recognized San Juan Capistrano resident Roy Heine with the Sheriff's Medal of Courage for his bravery in fighting off a suspect who was attacking an elderly woman.

Award recipients and their families attended a limited-capacity event at the Anaheim Hilton to celebrate their achievements. A recording of the ceremony can be viewed at ocsheriff.gov/MOV.

The honorees included:

- A group of San Juan Capistrano deputies who came to Roy Heine's aid and safely apprehended a combative and violent suspect.
- A group of Lake Forest deputies who interrupted a robbery in progress and took three suspects into custody who were later determined to be part of an extensive crime ring.
- Three Stanton deputies who performed lifesaving measures on a man gravely injured after he was struck by a train.
- Two Mission Viejo deputies who saved the life of a man critically injured after being pinned by a commercial-grade lawnmower.
- Sgt. Sandra Longnecker as this year's Distinguished Deputy honoree. Sgt. Longnecker's exemplary career includes an extensive history working sex crimes, domestic violence and homicide investigations. She also was honored for her work as the Crisis Negotiation Team sergeant and co-coordinator of the department's Peer Support Program, among other achievements.

Interviews with select recipients can be scheduled, upon request. A brief synopsis of this year's incidents is attached. Clean B-roll of the event also can be provided to members of the media.

The Sheriff's Department will be sharing video stories of each incident in the coming weeks on the department's Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and You Tube social media platforms.
